World Marriage Day: Sunday, February 12

To be included February 12/13: This weekend we celebrate World Marriage Day! Let's take time to pray for married couples, those discerning marriage, and for our spouses. Consider doing something special for a married couple this weekend to thank them for their vocation. For spouses, do something special for each other this weekend to show your gratitude for your spouse and their YES to marriage! Your goal in this Vocation of Marriage should be to get your spouse to heaven. Take time to ponder in your heart how you can do that, beginning today.

February 2, 2017 (Celebrated in Parishes February 4-5)

In 1997, Pope Saint John Paul II instituted a day of prayer for women and men in consecrated life. This celebration is attached to the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord on February 2nd. This Feast is also known as Candlemas Day; the day on which candles are blessed symbolizing Christ who is the light of the world. So too, those in consecrated life are called to reflect the light of Jesus Christ to all peoples. The celebration of World Day for Consecrated Life is transferred to the following Sunday in order to highlight the gift of consecrated persons for the whole Church.

KAZANIE NA GÓRZE

Dzisiejsza Ewangelia przypomina nam Osiem Błogosławieństw, czyli kodeks moralności chrześcijańskiej. Św. Mateusz umieszcza Błogosławieństwa na początku Kazania Chrystusa na Górze. Są one podstawą wszystkiego co Jezus powie w całej Ewangelii. Streszczają one również cały program działalności Chrystusa na ziemi. Przykazania Boże mówią o działaniach zewnętrznych: "Będziesz" i "nie będziesz". Błogosławieństwa dotyczą wewnętrznej postawy serca, które inspiruje działania: „Błogosławieni cisi, miłosierni, którzy wprowadzają pokój” Co robimy wpływa z tego, co mamy. Ponieważ jesteśmy dziećmi Boga, powinniśmy postępować jak Chrystus. To On jest naszą drogą do celu.

THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

"(On this day), the feast of Candlemas, we recall the presentation of Jesus in the temple. Forty days after His birth, Mary and Joseph went to Jerusalem to offer Him to the Lord as prescribed by the law of Moses. This is an episode that fits within the perspective of the People of Israel's special consecration to God."

— St. John Paul II

 Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)
 Zep 2:3; 3:12-13, 1 Cor 1:26-31, Mt 5:1-12a

To follow Christ is to seek lowliness, humility, mercy, and righteousness. The Ten Commandments summarize God's teaching to his people. Jesus gives us a new law that builds on the old. Before it was "You shall not..."; now it is, "Blessed are you when..." He calls us to greater happiness, greater blessing, but it comes with a challenge. Saint Augustine says that Jesus went up the mountain to preach the Beatitudes because he was preaching a higher moral doctrine: "greater precepts of righteousness."

The new law contradicts what our wounded human nature tends to think and feel. We are challenged to believe blessings can come from tears, meekness, and poverty; that living meekly leads to strength and security. Appreciating these truths requires transforming our minds and hearts. Faith is required. Deeply desiring and living in the right does bring satisfaction. There is consolation in mourning the things that sadden Christ's heart.

If we live by the beatitudes, many will treat us more generously. We know people who are merciful, and we are quick to show them mercy. When our hearts are clean, we can see God more clearly. Those who seek and create peace are considered by all to be children of God. They are not without trials and suffering, but they are blessed and happy.

Christ calls us to store up treasures in heaven, spiritual blessings that cannot be taken away. Even if we experience difficulty, we will still receive the highest and greatest gift: the kingdom of heaven.

For Reflection

Am I renewing my heart and mind in Christ? How do I live out the beatitudes?

Dear Padre

JANUARY 29, 2017

I am struggling with our new pastor. He has been in our parish for less than six months, and nothing seems to please him. Everything has to change, and the parishioners have no input. I thought the days of "pray, pay, and obey" were over.

The Code of Canon Law identifies the pastor as the shepherd of the parish. His duties require him to teach, sanctify, and govern the people entrusted to his care. However, canon law also envisions that he engage in pastoral care "with the assistance of lay members of the Christian faithful" (519). It would be fair to assert that the intention of the law is to encourage the building up of a community using the "knowledge, prudence, and integrity" of every member (228).

Many issues, feelings, and even theologies make up the personalities of a parish. The one constant that needs to be present is the presumption of good will (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2478). If that is missing, then conflict, hard feelings, and many misunderstandings will result.

Without taking sides, I suggest that everyone takes a deep breath. Then each of you—the pastor included—ask yourself, "Have I attempted to interpret this person or situation favorably? Have I made any rash judgments?" If honest and prayerful reflection reveal less-than-good intentions, now is the time to change your attitude and acknowledge that a new start is needed.
